JURISDICTION AND VENUE

7. The tortious conduct alleged herein, unilateral conduct by the Defendants, individually and/or collectively, occurred in Kenton County, Commonwealth of Kentucky. Thus, venue is proper under KRS 452.460 (where the injuries occurred) and jurisdiction is proper under KRS 454.210 (establishes personal jurisdiction over nonresidents) amongst other relevant Kentucky statutory provisions.
8. Further, venue is based upon Plaintiffs' residence in Kenton County, Commonwealth of Kentucky and the area of publication in question.
9. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this action pursuant to Section 112 of the Kentucky Constitution and KRS 23A.010, as the amount in controversy exceeds the minimum jurisdictional limits of this Court.
10. Therefore, jurisdiction over the parties and subject of this lawsuit are proper in this Court.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS OF PLAINTIFF

11. On Thursday, October 1, 2026, I sent the attached emailed to Susie Wiles, Donald Trump, Jr., Kim Guilfoyle and Drew Lynch. Exhibit 1.
12. They never responded.

13. Exhibit 2 is the information, less exhibits, which I sent to the news media on Monday October 5, 2026.
14. Dana Mattioli from the Wall Street Journal (WSJ) contacted me and asked that I give the WSJ an exclusive. I agreed.
15. The WSJ published an online story on Wednesday October 7, 2026 and a front page story on October 9, 2026. Exhibit 3.
16. Dana Mattioli informed me before publication Kim Guilfoyle and her legal counsel informed Mattioli and the WSJ of the following:
 - A. The texts were false; and,
 - B. I was a “known blackmailer.”
17. The texts are not fake.
18. I have never been accused of or charged with blackmail.
19. Defendants issued a public statement. Exhibit 4.
20. This statement contains the falsehood that I owed Kim Guilfoyle money.
21. Further, Kim Guilfoyle breached her oral contractual agreement with Eric E. Deters in regard to doing all she could to help the Dr. Durrani victims’ cause for a future $1 million dollar payment.
22. The following statements made by Defendants and published to third persons with malice were and are defamatory and false:
 - A. The text messages are fake;
 - B. I am a known blackmailer; and,
 - C. I owed Kim Guilfoyle money.

COUNT I – DEFAMATION (ALL DEFENDANTS)

23. Plaintiff incorporates by reference Paragraphs 1–22 as if fully set forth herein.
24. Defendants, individually and/or collectively, published false statements of fact concerning Plaintiff.
25. The statements were defamatory per se because they imputed unethical, and/or professionally improper conduct to Plaintiff.
26. Defendants, individually and/or collectively, published the statements to third parties without privilege or justification.
27. Defendants, individually and/or collectively, acted with actual malice in publishing/making the statements in question.
28. Plaintiff suffered damages as a direct and proximate result of Defendants, individually and/or collectively, publication in this matter.
29. Because Plaintiff is a public figure, Plaintiff specifically alleges that Defendants, individually and/or collectively, acted with actual malice, publishing/making statements they/it knew to be false or with reckless disregard for their truth or falsity.
30. The malice of Defendants, individually and/or collectively, were, but not necessarily limited to, the text messages were fake, I was a known blackmailer, and I owed Kim Guilfoyle money.
31. The statements are defamatory per se or per quod under Kentucky law because they exposed Plaintiff to public hatred, ridicule, contempt, and severely injured Plaintiff's personal and professional reputation.
32. Defendants' actions, individually and/or collectively, entitle Plaintiff to compensatory damages, punitive damages, costs, and all other relief available under Kentucky law.

COUNT II: FALSE LIGHT INVASION OF PRIVACY (ALL DEFENDANTS)

33. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs by reference as if fully re-written herein.
34. By publishing/making the statements, Defendants, individually and/or collectively, placed Plaintiff before the public in a false light.
35. The false light in which Plaintiff was placed would be highly offensive to a reasonable person.
36. Defendants, individually and/or collectively, had knowledge of and acted in reckless disregard as to the falsity of the publicized matter and the false light in which the Plaintiff would be placed.
37. The widespread public dissemination of this false presentation has caused the Plaintiff serious mental suffering and injury to his peace of mind amongst other damages in accordance with/under Kentucky law.

COUNT III: BREACH OF CONTRACT AS TO DEFENDANT GUILFOYLE

38. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs by reference as if fully re-written herein.
39. To establish a breach of contract claim under Kentucky law, a plaintiff must prove three core elements: (1) the existence of a valid contract; (2) a breach of that contract by the defendant; and (3) damages suffered as result.
40. Plaintiff and Defendant Guilfoyle had a valid contract under Kentucky law pertaining to her doing all she could to help the Durrani victims' cause for a future $1 million dollar payment. There was an offer, acceptance, and consideration in this matter. The Plaintiff fulfilled his material obligations under the agreement.
41. Defendant Guilfoyle breached that contract by failing to perform the terms and conditions of said contract.

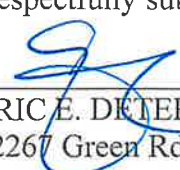

42. As a result of the breach of contract by the unilateral failure to perform the terms and conditions of said Contract by Defendant Guilfoyle, Plaintiff has suffered damages and the damages are ongoing to date.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, Eric E. Deters, requests judgment against the Defendants, jointly and severally, for the following:

- A. Compensatory damages in an amount to be determined by a jury;
- B. Damages for injury to reputation;
- C. Damages for emotional distress and humiliation;
- D. Damages for breach of contract;
- E. Punitive damages sufficient to punish and deter Defendant's conduct, individually and/or collectively, pursuant to KRS 411.184 amongst other Kentucky law;
- F. Costs expended;
- G. Trial by jury; and,
- H. All other legal and equitable relief to which Plaintiff may appear entitled to in this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

I have a political favor to ask the President. I would like him to ask Warren Buffett to have Medical Protective pay the $40 million insurance money to the Durrani victims. Berkshire Hathaway owns 100% of Medical Protective. It's the right thing for Warren Buffett to do. If he does not want to do that, I ask him to direct the DOJ and FBI to investigate the circumstances of Durrani's flight; begin extradition of Durrani from Pakistan; investigate the Ohio Court system in the Durrani matter; investigate Medical Protective's fraud and by letter to me from DOJ make such public knowledge. The Durrani victims deserve this assistance from him. The attachments regarding Durrani support these investigations.

I ask for confirmation by 5 PM Monday this is being set in motion. If not, I will accept it will not be happening and send out the attached to the national media in an attempt to bring media attention to their plight. I will add this to it as my final attempt for your assistance. These are two options I have. I prefer option one as the fastest resolution. Thank you so much.

As I have in all my dealings with Trump World up until now, I can keep all this confidential.

MY CANCELLATION OF PATRIOT'S DAY FREEDOM FEST IS NOT THE ANTI-TRUMP STORY THE MEDIA THOUGHT. THIS IS.

Eric Deters

Available for interviews and appearances for news/podcasts/shows.

My name found its way into the national news when I cancelled my September 26, 2026 Patriot's Day Freedom Fest with six VIP tickets sold. The anti-Trump press thought it meant a waning of MAGA support. I spoke to only two media outlets, Newsweek and The Washington Post, and the reporters just could not let the non-story go. My tightwad, so called "money friends" simply love their money, and $1,000, more than helping me, even though I always help them for free. It really is an anti-rich people story. As I said, most rich people do suck because money is all they care about. In the face of the media storm of the cancellation, I defended MAGA and Kid Rock.

I will give the national media a real "anti-Trump" story only because it ties into the Trump administration refusing to assist the 580 Dr. Atiq Durrani victims; Kimberly Guilfoyle being a wicked grifter; their mistreatment of me; and my opinion of Trump personally, while supporting his policies. It's juicy. Jump to page 3 if you can not wait for context.

What follows is a real anti-Trump story. It is all true. I have taken the liberty of signing it under oath. For the motivated reader, I attach exhibits of texts, emails, photos and documentation which supports this memorandum. This includes texts to and from Kimberly Guilfoyle, including on Signal, and to and from Drew Lynch, Donald Trump's producer of "Triggered" and Kimberly's producer. The texts prove all I state. I never used Signal before. Kimberly insisted I do. I have never it used again.

I begin with the summary point of this story.

President Trump's administration has ignored my repeated requests to assist the victims of Dr. Atiq Durrani, the Butcher of Pakistan, and his insurance company, Medical Protective Insurance Company, despite all I have done for President Trump and MAGA. The Trump administration simply do not care about anyone unless it brings attention or money to them. Therefore, I am going to share how Kimberly Guilfoyle attempted to grift me for support; the amusing story of her actions and words in the midst of the break up with Don Jr.; my view of Donald Trump's megalomania narcissism; and how no one in the media has written or spoken how the Trump's attitude towards the Eric Deters crowd of MAGA supporters of the country changed after 2024.

After 2020, President Trump was under siege, racking up attorney fees and in legal peril. The same applied to the entire family. Therefore, they needed money and support from every possible corner. After 2024, with all the billionaires lining up for the winner of the Presidency, he needs no one. I was one of those they needed between 2020 and 2024 and were more than happy to use.

Why this article written by me as President of Eric Deters' Media? To ensure the press does not screw it up. I can only hope many publications will print this in its entirety.

If I share how Trump world would not help these long-suffering victims, maybe the media will take up the extraordinary story of the Dr. Durrani victims. Not only is it a story of 580 plus unnecessary spinal surgeries; but a corrupt Ohio legal system, a corrupt federal judiciary and a Cincinnati, Ohio media who ignores it all. It is the greatest medical/legal/court corruption story in the history of America and it has NEVER received any national attention. I wrote a book called "The Butcher of Pakistan" which can be read or listened to. By example, the "Dr. Death" story is nothing compared to this story.

One more introductory statement before I "share all." I remain supportive of most of President Trump's policies, not all. I am not a Thomas Massie or MTG. Having said that, you will enjoy my view of his personality.

On Thursday, October 1, 2026 at 11:20 AM, I sent an email to Susie Wiles, Don Jr., Kimberly Guilfoyle and Drew Lynch giving President Trump and them one final opportunity to help Durrani victims. I asked for a response by 5 PM today. I received no response. Thus, this article.

I have supported President Trump before he became President Trump. I supported him from not only the time of the escalator ride, but enjoyed his books and his story. I have donated a million dollars from 2020 to 2024 to "Trump World." In 2016, I served as his Northern Kentucky Chairman in the 2016 primary. As soon as he won, everyone in Kentucky who opposed him, from Senator McConnell, Senator Paul and Governor Bevin took over. I accepted it as political reality. Not one person who ran his statewide primary campaign was ever included in anything. On primary election night, Trump needed Kentucky to tie Ted Cruz 3 to 3 that night and avoid embarrassment. Other than Trump's endorsement of Thomas Massie's opponent, no one did more to defeat Massie than me. From 2016 to 2020, I only asked for one favor as Trump as President. I sent a letter to him and AG Barr asking for assistance on behalf of the Dr. Durrani victims. I received no response.

My 600,000 social media followers and 50 million views a month is pro-Trump policy. Trump's so called loyalty goes one way UNLESS he gains.

I have never asked for a job or a position or applied for one in the Trump administration. I've met President Trump five times including at a $125,000 Mar-a-Lago dinner with twenty national political and financial heavyweights. My interaction with President Trump was the only one which received applause in the room. I paid $100,000 to attend the Kentucky Derby with him. I spoke to him at a birthday party for Kimberly Guilfoyle at her and Junior's home in Jupiter. I met him during the primary in 2016. I spoke to him and saved him from a gaffe on the primary election date prior to his speech. I was invited and attended the first support party at Mar-a-Lago after the first indictment. I was invited, but did not attend Kimberly and Don Jr.'s Christmas party where Kid Rock acted as DJ.

I defended President Trump through it all: bogus impeachments, January 6, suspending Constitution comment, "grab em" comment, criminal charges and on and on.

Why?

Because I believe his policies are what the country needs. We can disagree about that, but I still believe it.

While I still support his policies, I will call out President Trump for the following:

1. Not doing anything to help the 580 plus victims of Dr. Atiq Durrani and his unnecessary spine surgeries. This is all I have asked for from his administration. It is sad he has done nothing. What is worse, they have practiced the greatest of disrespect. They have ignored and failed to respond to the requests.
2. The open grifting and enrichment. While a different style than the Bidens' shadow criminal operation, it is the same and much greater.
3. The megalomania symbolized most by his Victory Arch in D.C.

When I began holding the Patriot's Day Freedom Fest in 2020 in response to the covid medical mandates against healthcare workers, I developed a relationship with Kimberly Guilfoyle. (You are not allowed to call her Kim. You are specifically told Kimberly or KG. She is pissed if not.) Kimberly and Tomi Lahren were the featured speakers year one.

In years to follow, Eric Trump came once; Don Jr. came twice; Kimberly three times and other national speakers.

The first year Don Jr. came, Kimberly Guilfoyle insisted and I had to fork out $100,000 for him too. I did.

Huge crowds attended my event. All free. Paid for by me except $100,000 in 2024 VIP sales. 5,000 on low side and 15,000 on the high side was the attendance at the event each year.

In 2024, Don Jr. would not sit near or speak to Kimberly during the drive to and from the airport or in the VIP tent. Everyone noticed. We had a front seat to the breakup. Here are some highlights:

1. Don, Jr. told me he used all his political capital to get J.D. Vance on the ticket. I knew this and know this. I reported it. No one in the country did. Here it is again. Breaking news. JD Vance is VP because of Don Jr. and Don Jr. is set up well for 2028 with JD Vance at the head of the ticket.

2. Kimberly had my wife and my wife's friend sneak alcohol to her because Don Jr. would be upset if he knew. Kimberly acted like a high schooler sneaking alcohol.
3. Kimberly took all the remaining VIP food home with her. Bizarre.
4. Kimberly repeatedly asked me to compliment her in front of Don Jr. to help her win back his favor. Bizarre. It was hilarious as I made up compliments.
5. Kimberly called all "Trump men narcissistic assholes." I said nothing in response. I knew I was now in the middle of political land mines.
6. Kimberly repeatedly denied there were problems in Jr. world and snapped at me when I expressed concern for her. It is in the texts.
7. Kimberly complained about Don Jr. flying into the private plane airport, Lunken, while she came to Greater Cincinnati Airport. They came from different locations. After picking her up, I had to drive at, let's say, higher than the speed limit to get to Don Jr., as he disembarked to satisfy Kimberly. Thus, the Jason Statham nickname she gave me. In a comedic scene, I missed an exit, drove down a grass hill, with her and her assistant, Cassidy, bouncing around in the SUV which led to Kimberly remarking she "might lose her breast implants."

When the breakup came, I chose Jr.'s side and told his producer that fact. I think stating that was a mistake because he was her producer too. I believe she poisoned Don Jr. against me with who knows what lies. She is wicked. Remember, Kimberly knows plenty. Thus, the peaceful exile to a Greece ambassadorship. But before that, I had my most bizarre experience. All supported by the attached text messages and her repeated complaints when I put stuff "in writing." She claimed I was costing her her ambassadorship.

Kimberly asked me to give her $100,000 to pay off her American Express card before her confirmation hearing. She told me if I would, she would be my "ride or die in Trump world" forever. So $300,000 up to this point I had paid her was not enough. If I had it at the time, I would have done it. I didn't, so I didn't. I have not heard from her since. I had already paid her $300,000 since 2020 in appearance fees. She wanted even more before helping me. What a friend?!

When I asked Kimberly for help on the Durrani story, she had me on her Rumble show a few times and on Donald Jr.'s Rumble show once. I have not heard from him since. Every message ignored. On his show, Donald Jr. called me his good friend and said there was an FBI investigation into Medical Protective. I believed us friends. I told Kimberly and she accepted, that if she helped me expose Medical Protective, I would give her a million dollars. This includes a promised appearance on Tucker Carlson. I offered the same to Don Jr.'s producer Drew Lynch, who bragged he was close to Kash Patel. I saw it as hiring consultants. At this time, neither held a government job. I told them, I would only pay if I got results.

I hope Tucker Carlson hears Kimberly Guilfoyle claimed she could get me an appearance on his show for a million dollars payable to her.

Prior to going on Kimberly's show once, Warren Buffett's executive assistant, Deborah Bosanak, called Kimberly to complain I was going on her show. Kimberly asked me to remove a satirical graphic. I did. I did the show. It is attached with the photos.

I decided to mess with Warren Buffett back. I sued him and his assistant for $5,000 in Kentucky for their interfering with my appearance on Kimberly's show. I dropped the lawsuit after 26 days. His lawyers from Sidley & Austin bill $2,300 an hour and are asking for $865,000 in attorney fees to defend that case. A hearing is being scheduled on their fees. A case for $5,000 and dropped after 26 days. $865,000 in claimed attorney fees. This is a great example of how "Big Law" is a virus on America. Fortunately for me, I can handle "Big Law."

Medical Protective also sued me for laughable "extortion," "abuse of process" and "defamation" for all the Durrani victims' lawsuits against them. Berkshire Hathaway owns 100% of Medical Protective. It is hysterical really. They are racking up millions in attorney fees. I am successfully defending myself. They claim $8 million in attorney fees so far. Warren Buffett brags about $4 billion and $5 billion in charity a year, yet Medical Protective would not pay $40 million to 398 victims of an unnecessary spine surgery covered under their policy. In 2013, they could have paid $100,000 per victim. They have spent over $50 million in legal fees rather than pay these victims.

There is a contempt hearing for me on October 6 for the $2,300 per hour lawyers claiming I wanted to murder them. You can't make it up. All because I sent them a photo of a cat playing with a mouse. The federal judges which have handled the Medical Protective cases are as corrupt as "Judge Harvey Hale."

I have sent information to J.D. Vance, Vivek Ramasway, Pam Bondi, Todd Blanche, Kash Patel, Don Jr., and more. All ignored. Exhibits attached. The entire Dr. Durrani story happened in Cincinnati and JD Vance and Vivek, from Cincinnati do nothing. I have exchanged texts with Vivek. He said he would think about it, then took the endorsement of the Ohio Medical Association. I offered an endorsement of Amy Action by text to her running mate, David Pepper. Ignored.

What could Trump World do:

1. Go get Durrani. Pakistan has an extradition treaty with the U.S. Durrani remains on the Inspector General's Most Wanted List. His poster is the cover of my book.
2. Open an investigation into Medical Protective/Durrani and their lawyers regarding how Durrani fled the country and their fraud.

3. Investigate the Ohio/federal judges and court system regarding how after 14 years, 200 Durrani victims still don't have their trials and over 100 have died waiting.

My attached affidavit of 30 pages details it all.

I was told by Don Jr. there is an investigation into Medical Protective. Is there? I have been sued because I said there was based upon what he told me.

After 2020, Trump world needed all the friends they could get. I was one. After 2024, they needed no one. They have the billionaires. (I am a Musk supporter). Therefore, they discard the "Eric Deters" supporters across the country. I bet this story will bring other "Eric Deters" forward.

Here is what no one writes about. Trump ONLY aligns himself with billionaires, MAGA congressmen, senators and governors and any story which he can benefit from the press. That's it. He couldn't care less about Durrani victims because it has not been a national press story.

How many boards have Eric and Don Jr. been appointed to and instantly financially gain? Right out in the open, not like the Biden crime in the shadows. Jared Kushner's Saudi Fund? By the way, the two members of the Trump family I could not stand: Ivanka and Jared. They are the epitome of rich people sucking.

Trump called crypto a scam until Don Jr. and Eric jumped in. Now they all gift off it.

I support the ballroom, but do we need a Trump Victory Arch?

President Trump declares himself the greatest President over Washington, Lincoln and FDR? Really?

It is wrong for a sitting President to hawk merchandise. Trump watches?

Do we need Trump on coins? The $250 dollar bill? Our passports?

Renaming Gulf of Mexico?

A desire to be on Mount Rushmore?

Renaming Lake Ontario?

Threatening to change the name of the Strait of Hormoz to the Strait of Trump?

Kennedy- Trump Center?

Canada 51st State?

Iran War/Gas Prices- Do we control the Strait or not? Are we energy dependent or not?

On and on.

I like his Cabinet. Far cry from Biden's incompetence. However, do you notice how they must praise Trump first before speaking on any topic. It is amusing to watch.

Trump is not a King. He is a pissed off (justified how he was treated) egomaniac, narcissistic, insecure man who can not fulfill his need for adoration. I often wonder what a great President Trump would be if he had the same policy, but the class of Reagan or the down home nature of Truman.

The Mar-a-Lago scene is so yuck yuck. The Mar-a-Lago plastic surgery look? Hysterical. You could not pay me to go back there. I went four times. I took comedic comfort that my home's swimming pool puts Mar-a-Lago's to shame.

I wish he and his team could have cared about the victims of Dr. Durrani.

I am the only person in the Cincinnati / Kentucky area who has been both a Trump supporter and fought against the system for the "little guy."

I have been mistreated by the establishment and local media for being a Trump supporter while not being supported by Trump world. Not only have I been loyal to Trump, I have paid a heavy price for it.

It is sad.

My primary cause is fighting corporate healthcare fraud. Why does Trump go after fraud, but not help 580 victims of fraud. JD Vance has ignored by hand delivered personal letter to his home. Vivek Ramaswamy refused to take up the cause in Ohio. Mike Dewine, Ohio Governor and former Ohio AG and David Yost former Ohio AG also ignored my pleas. So has every Democrat and Republican Ohio legislator.

Trump world is willing to go after federal judges. They should go after the federal judges in Durrani, especially Judge Michael Barrett and Judge Edmund Sargus.

I put my resume last as an exhibit. Anyone who looks that over can not claim I do not have credibility in all I write here.

THESE ARE ORIGINAL AND RELEVANT QUOTES OF MINE

WHEN ANYONE IN POSITION AND POWER TO ACT FOR JUSTICE AND GOOD DOES NOT, THAT PERSON DESERVES PUBLIC ACRIMONIOUS REBUKE SO THAT THEY PAY A PRICE FOR THEIR ACCOMMODATION TO EVIL.

Regardless of anyone's opinion of Luigi Mangione committing the murder of United Healthcare CEO Brian Thompson, Mangione has done more to expose and hit back at corrupt and greedy healthcare companies than anyone in history. The media has ignored the Dr. Durrani victims cause against Medical Protective. Like I said regarding "burning down the courthouse" to get trials. I ask: Is murder the only means to get justice and media exposure? If it is, what does corporate healthcare, health insurance and the media expect to happen?

LAW MUST EQUAL JUSTICE; SIMPLE, SWIFT, FAIR AND IMPARTIAL; NOT COMPLEX, SLOW, BIASED AND BOUGHT.

"YOU CAN ALSO COMMIT AN INJUSTICE BY DOING NOTHING."
-MARCUS AURELIUS

Will the national media now take up the cause of the Dr. Durrani victims now that I have exposed the administration and Kimberly Guilfoyle for the yuck yucks they are?

Will Kimberly Guilfoyle be fired or forced to resign as she should for being a grifter? God only knows how she has used her ambassadorship to gift.

Will Trump be embarrassed enough to help out?

Will the Democrats take up the Dr. Durrani victims' cause?

Will the national media take up the Dr. Durrani victims' cause?

I ask for everyone's help. I have given you an anti-Trump story. I ask for your help for the Dr. Durrani victims. They are worthy of it. Anyone can go to ericdeters.com and donate to the cause.

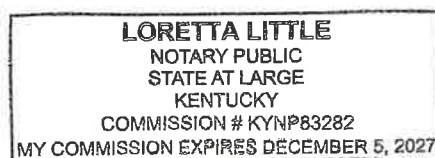

Further, Affiants Sayeth Naught.

Russian Strike on Ukraine Buses Kills at Least 30

DEVASTATING TOLL: A Russian glide bomb struck two civilian buses Thursday near a stop in the eastern Ukraine city of Kramatorsk, killing at least 30, officials said. One of the destroyed vehicles is seen in a photo provided by the government. A9

'Honey Please': Guilfoyle Pushed Donor to Wire $100,000 to Amex

Text messages with a MAGA ally show her offering access to top officials

Kimberly Guilfoyle was preparing for her congressional debut to become U.S. ambassador to Greece when she reached out to a Trump donor with an urgent request: She needed $100,000 that she said she owed American Express— in a way that wouldn't leave a paper trail.

"It won't show up anywhere if you wire money to American Express," she wrote on Signal, according to messages reviewed by The Wall Street Journal, "Honey." For months, Guilfoyle had been claiming with Eric Deters, a former congressional candidate in Kentucky who was avoiding her help in getting the attention of the new Trump administration on some personal tax and legal issues—and had promised payments of as much as $1 million if she was successful. As Donald Trump Jr.'s former fiancée, Guilfoyle offered to use her sway, according to Deters and messages reviewed by the Journal. She forwarded Deters the messages she sent to the new Internal Revenue Service chief and updated him on her efforts.

Guilfoyle didn't ultimately make the payment, telling Guilfoyle it would cost him his marriage. But the back and forth, part of a trove of hundreds of messages, emails and letters reviewed by the Journal, raises new questions about the activities of one of America's most high-profile ambassadors.

Last week, Guilfoyle came under fire from Democrats on the Senate and House foreign affairs committees, who urged the State Department to review her conduct. They cited a Journal investigation into her promotion of a Greek company.

Iran, Houthis Deliver Big Blow In Gulf

Oil prices soar after attacks against tanker near Qatar and in Saudi capital

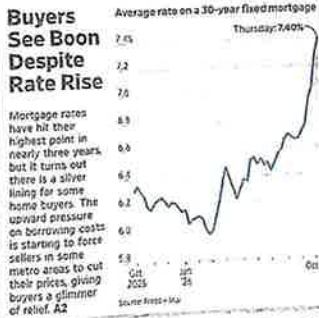

DUBAI—Iran and its Houthi allies in Yemen delivered a one-two punch against Persian Gulf oil producers in separate attacks on Wednesday night and Thursday morning that sent oil prices sharply higher and further shattered the sense of security in Saudi Arabia's capital city. Just last week, Iran appeared to have its back against the wall in its war with the U.S., its ports blockaded and its leverage over the Strait of Hormuz slipping. Now, Tehran is trying to regain the upper hand. An oil-and-chemical tanker near Qatar was struck by several projectiles late Wednesday, causing casualties, according to maritime insurance firm Varganese and the U.S. Maritime Trade Operations agency.

By increasing attacks on shipping, Tehran is seeking to break the stalemate in the Strait and increase pressure on Washington to reach a diplomatic settlement, some analysts said.

900 Miles and a Bag of Change: The Quest to Save Pay Phones

Army of 'phone spotters' is racing against the clock to rescue the U.K.'s red booths

By James Hootman

PEBBLE, Scotland—William Arnold drove 900 miles from his home in Cornwall this summer to a windswept pay phone on the Isle of Lewis. When he got there, he pulled out a bag of coins and started making calls, 82 of them to be precise.

hunting for real, tangible experiences, and a lot of this is borne out in things like the increase in sales of vinyl records," said Arnold, a photographer and university lecturer when he isn't hunting down remote phone boxes. "Making a phone call the old way fits in with that, just hearing the way the line hums before putting a coin in."

Personal AI Agents Are Great Until They Blab Your Bank Info

By KENNETH COLE

Shimo Mac had been using a personal AI agent since August without issue when the startup chief executive got pinged by one of his employees in a "heads up" about a text Slack message that had a screenshot attached.

Mac had been using Grok, the AI agent, to manage his personal finances. He had even named the agent "Personal CFO." He maintains a separate Grok bot agent linked to his work Slack, which he named "Chief of Staff."

People are being wowed by the capabilities of their personal AI agents.

To: <rebecca.ballhaus@wsj.com>, <joe.parkinson@wsj.com>, <dana.mattioli@wsj.com>

STATEMENT OF JESSE BINNALL, ESQ. AND DAVID M SCHWARTZ, ESQ. ON BEHALF OF AMBASSADOR KIMBERLY GUILFOYLE REGARDING THE FALSE ACCUSATIONS OF ERIC DETERS and TRAVEL RELATED EXPENSES

Eric Deters owes Ambassador Kimberly Guilfoyle approximately $150,000 for speeches and consulting work she performed for him long before she was nominated to serve as Ambassador. Mr. Deters has gone on national television to recast a contractual dispute as wrongdoing, and to attack not only Ambassador Guilfoyle but President Trump and other high-profile members of the administration. His own words and contract that Deters signed, show that his statements are false.

Before entering government service, Kimberly Guilfoyle was an accomplished attorney, a former prosecutor in San Francisco and Los Angeles, a national television personality, and one of the most prominent political advocates for President Trump in the country. She was in demand as a keynote speaker and as a strategic communications and fundraising advisor, work she set aside entirely upon entering public service. People paid for her time because of who she is and what she has accomplished. Eric Deters was one of them.

Mr. Deters hired Ms. Guilfoyle to headline his Kentucky "Freedom Fest" events, which he staged to build his own profile ahead of his campaigns for Governor of Kentucky and for Congress. On May 20, 2024, he signed a written General Service Agreement with X Strategies LLC, the firm that booked and collected fees on her behalf, calling for a flat fee of $200,000 payable by May 31, 2024. Additional speaking engagements and consulting work were arranged either directly, and Mr. Deters agreed to pay for strategic communications and fundraising consulting services that Ms. Guilfoyle performed. That agreement was witnessed by a third party who has attested to it under oath.

Mr. Deters did not honor these obligations. He missed the contractual payment deadline and then, over a period of many months, sent irregular partial wires accompanied by a steady stream of reasons for the nonpayment. His own text messages blame his business partner, blame his lawyers, and describe himself as "a cash strapped millionaire." Ms. Guilfoyle extended him grace repeatedly. In the end, he paid some of what he owed and simply never paid the rest.

Approximately $150,000 for speeches delivered and consulting performed in 2024 and early 2025 remains unpaid to this day.

That is what Mr. Deters now calls a "quid pro quo": a delinquent client being asked to pay an overdue bill. When Ms. Guilfoyle was preparing to leave private life for public service, she did what any professional does and tried to close out her outstanding receivables. Asking a client to pay for work already done is not corruption. It is the opposite of corruption.

Mr. Deters has told reporters that he paid Ms. Guilfoyle for speaking appearances, that "I overpaid, but I didn't care because I was nurturing my relationship in Trump world," and that he offered her $1 million to help publicize and promote his private medical malpractice litigation and to bring it to the attention of Administration officials. She refused. He has admitted that he never paid the outstanding balance and that he received nothing from her.

Reports regarding the Ambassador's travel are equally misleading. Before using any private aircraft, Ambassador Guilfoyle sought, obtained and followed State Department guidance and followed the Department's travel regulations. She has complied with applicable federal ethics, gift, and reporting requirements, as the Embassy has already confirmed.

Since making history on November 4, 2025, as the first woman to serve as U.S. Ambassador to the Hellenic Republic, Ambassador Kimberly Guilfoyle has made American energy leadership and the advancement of U.S. energy security interests across Europe defining priorities of her tenure under President Trump, championing American energy expansion, strengthening the U.S.–Greece strategic partnership, and advancing U.S. energy dominance throughout Europe and the Vertical Corridor.

Ambassador Guilfoyle has served, and will continue to serve, with integrity, honor and distinction. We are evaluating all available legal remedies to collect this debt and any other potential causes of action.
